						Area în square miles.	Population according to the Crusts of 1911.
Presidency Sind	proper	•••	. ••• •••	 •	•••	77,275 47,783	16,113,042 3,513,435

- During the year under report there were a few variations in the constitution and jurisdiction of the Civil Courts in the Presidency. The Subordinate Courts of Dholka and Viramgam in the Ahmedabad Judicial District, which were linked together as a temporary measure, were separated from the 6th February 1914. The Subordinate Courts of Kaira and Kapadvanj continued to be linked till the end of the year. Besides, the Subordinate Courts of Ankleshvar and Vagra were linked together under one Subordinate Judge, and the Subordinate Judge thus freed was appointed to work at Broach as Additional Subordinate Judge. The Villages of Ratalao, Meghwa, Tarpura, Badapura, Sardarpura and Khankharpur previously included within the territorial limits of the jurisdiction of the Court of Small Causes at Nadiad, for the purposes of suits of a Small Cause Court nature, were excluded therefrom, and included within the territorial limits of the jurisdiction of the Court of the Subordinate Judge of Umreth. Fifty-four villages which had been heretofore included in the local limits of the ordinary jurisdiction of the Subordinate Judge of Sangameswar, in the Ratnágiri District, were excluded therefrom, and included in the local limits of the ordinary jurisdiction of the Subordinate Judge of Chiplun in the same district, and the designation of the Court of the Subordinate Judge of Sangmeshwar was changed to that of the Court of the Subordinate Judge of Devrukh. The villages of Dhakano, Pingalwadi and Patole previously included in the local limits of the ordinary jurisdiction of the Subordinate Judge of Murbad in the Thana District, were excluded therefrom and included in the local limits of the ordinary jurisdiction of the Subordinate Judge of Kalyan in the same district.
 - 3. The High Court was presided over by the Honourable Sir Basil Scott, Knight, from the 1st January to 7th June and from 5th July to 31st December 1914. His Lordship was on privilege leave from 5th June to 7th July 1914. During this period the Honourable Sir Dinsha D. Davar, Knight, acted as Chief Justice.

Puisne Judges.

- The Honourable Sir Stanley L. Batchelor, Knight, from 1st January to 7th-June and from 18th October to 31st December 1914. His Lordship was on furlough from 8th June to 17th October 1914.
- The Honourable Sir Dinsha D. Davar, Knight, from 1st January to 7th June and from 8th July to 31st December 1914. His Lordship acted as Chief Justice from 5th June to 7th July 1914.
- The Honourable Mr. Justice Beaman from 1st January to 31st December 1914.

- The Honourable Mr. Justice Heaton from 1st January to 31st December 1914.
- The Honourable Mr. Justice Macleod from 1st January to 31st December 1914.
- The Honourable Mr. Justice Shah from 1st January to 31st December 1914.
- The Honourable Mr. Justice Hayward officiated as a Judge of the High Court from 8th June to 17th October 1914.
- 4. In the Presidency proper there were on the 31st December 1914—
 - 15 District Judges,
 - 1 Joint Judge,
 - 12 Assistant Judges,
 - 8 Small Cause Court Judges (including those at the Presidency Town) besides the Cantonment Magistrates at Belgaum, Ahmednagar and Ahmedabad and the Registrars of the Small Cause Courts of Bombay, Poona and Nadiad, who are also invested with Small Cause Court powers.
 - 17 First Class Subordinate Judges (excluding two Inspecting First Class Subordinate Judges who do not exercise judicial powers).
 - 103 Second Class Subordinate Judges (excluding two Inspecting Second Class Subordinate Judges who do not exercise judicial powers).
- 5. Besides the above Judicial Officers, there were during the year under report 6 Inamdars and Jahagirdars exercising the powers of Subordinate Judges under Regulation XIII of 1830.
- 6. In the Province of Sind, there were, on the 31st December 1914, besides the Judicial Commissioner and 3 Additional Judicial Commissioners,—
 - 4 District Judges (including the Deputy Commissioner, Thar and Parkar, who exercises the powers of a District Judge),
 - 3 Joint Judges,
 - 1 Small Cause Court Judge (besides the Cantonment Magistrate at Karáchi exercising Civil powers, and the Registrar of the Small Cause Court, Karáchi),
 - 3 First Class Subordinate Judges,
 - 13 Second Class Subordinate Judges.
- 7. As regards the working of the Dekkhan Agriculturists' Relief Act, the reports of three of the District Judges will be found summarized below.

The District Judge of Khandesh states that there is no doubt the principles of the Act are understood in the district and very full advantage is taken of its provisions, which must increase litigation. The fact that a debtor can claim an account when brought before the Court, whatever the nature of the instrument evidencing the debt, must be a very strong inducement to refuse payment utill a suit is filed, and the same consideration is likely to influence the creditor in fixing his terms.

The District Judge of Násik observes that the provisions of the Act are widely known to, and fully utilized by, the agriculturists generally and adds that there are no Village Munsiffs appointed in the District.

The District Judge of Surat considers the working of the Act to be satisfactory.

The District of Judges of Ahmednagar, Dharwar, Kanara, Poona, Ratnágiri and Sátára do not consider it necessary to make any romarks as the proposals made by the Dekkhan Agriculturists' Relief Act Commission are under the consideration of Government.

The District Judges of Ahmedabad, Belgaum, Bijápur, Broach, Sholápur and Thána are silent on the point.

The Annual Statements.

- 8. In accordance with letter No. 1416-1448, dated the 18th September 1905, from the Government of India to the Government of Bombay, this statement is filled up in duplicate—one for Civil and the other for Criminal work—and the statistics for Revenue Courts are excluded from it as also from the other judicial statements.
- 9. The total number of civil cases decided during the year under report was 3,35,938 as against 3,16,033 in the last year, showing an increase of 10,905. The increase in the number of disposals occurs in all kinds of civil cases.
- 10. Of the total number of decided cases 49 per cent. were regular suits, 48.9 per cent. miscellaneous cases, and 2.1 per cent. appeals as against 47.5, 50.3, and 2.2 per cent., respectively, during the year 1913.
- 11. The total receipts of all the Courts (Civil and Criminal) have risen from Rs. 49,61,993, to Rs. 50,86,940, and the total charges from Rs. 50,04,513 to Rs. 53,63,167. These figures are supplied by the Accountant General, Bombay, in accordance with Government Resolution, Judicial Department, No. 5042, dated 11th August 1893.
 - 12. The total number of suits instituted in all the Courts was 161,911 as against 153,452 in the preceding year, showing an increase of 8,492. Last year there was an increase of 17,369.
- 13. There was an increase of 13,309 in the number of suits for money as compared with the increase of 12,011 last year. There was also an increase in all other kinds of suits except suits for immoveable property, suits to establish a right of pre-emption, mortgage suits and suits relating to religious and other endowments.
- 14. The percentage of suits for money or moveable property rose from 78.7 to 82.8 and that of suits relating to immoveable property (including mortgage and pre-emption suits) fell from 16.7 to 12.4; the percentage of all other kinds of suits was 4.8 as compared with 4.6 last year.

I5. The aggregate value of suits rose from Rs. 4,54,49,833 to Rs. 0,75,05,848. All kinds of suits showed an increase.

- 16. The Courts of the Unpaid Tribunals showed a decrease in the value of suits instituted during the year, while all the rest showed an increase. The increase is most marked in the Superior Courts and the Presidency Small Cause Courts where the value of suits instituted rose from Rs. 1,09,11,502 and Rs. 49,71,321 to Rs. 3,14,75,114 and Rs. 55,68,493 respectively.
- 17. There were 220,169 suits for disposal before all the Courts, out of which 164,628 were disposed of, leaving a balance of 55,311 pending at the end of the year. The corresponding tigures for the last year were 200,031, 130,213 and 55,818.

18. The disposals may be classified as under:—

- 19. Of the total number of suits disposed of after contest and on reference to Arbitration, judgment was given for plaintiff in whole or in part, in 84.8 per cent. and for the defendant in 15.2 per cent. of cases.
- 20. The average duration of contested suits fell from 210 to 191 days in the year under report, but of uncontested suits rose from 95 to 101. The corresponding figures for 1911 and 1912, respectively, were 119 and 222 for contested, and 185 and 96 for uncontested suits. In the District Courts the average duration was 278 days for contested and 119 for uncontested suits as against 209 and 152, respectively, in the preceding year. In the Mofussil Subordinate Courts the average duration was 215 days for contested and 128 days for uncontested suits as against 238 and 118, respectively, in the previous year. In the Superior Courts the average duration was 368 days for contested and 332 days for uncontested suits as against 352 and 408, respectively, in the preceding year. The delay in the disposal is mainly due to the non-service of notices and the effect of Rule 5 of Order IX, which allows the party a year within which to apply for fresh notice.

21. The following table gives some idea of the comparative litigiousness of the several districts in the Presidency:—

District.	Population.	Number of suits instituted.	Proportion of suits instituted to population.	Total number of decided suits.	Proportion of contested suits to the number of decided suits.

The percentage of contested miscellaneous cases to the total of cases of all kinds was 31.1 and the average duration of such cases was 81 days as against 91 days in the preceding year.

23. The following table shows the results of appeals disposed of during the year as compared with those disposed of during the last year:—
